KNOW THE AMERICAN LIBRARY ASSOCIATION

The ALA is Terrorist Friendly, Child Unfriendly, and Dishonest

CHATHAM, NJ, Jan. 4, 2012 – The American Library Association [ALA], once a trusted source for information, has become terrorist friendly, child unfriendly, and dishonest/unethical.

Claiming a 9/11 terrorist's library patron privacy rights were violated is one example. Faking its annual top 10 challenged books list is another. Dan Kleinman of SafeLibraries provides irrefutable proof. For example, he made a recording of an author admitting the 2010 top 10 list is faked. While the ALA claims to be devoted to library services and librarianship [EN 1], it has extended beyond its mission [EN 2] to promote causes having nothing to do with librarianship.

The ALA changed when an Illinois state ACLU leader named Judith Krug joined the ALA then created the Office for Intellectual Freedom and the Freedom to Read Foundation. [EN 3] In control for around 40 years until her death, she single handedly changed the ALA from within. [EN 3] No longer would ALA members protect children from harm. Knowing the ACLU "has baggage," [EN 4] she used the ALA as the pretty face to effectuate ACLU policy. ACLU policy is now ALA policy. "And frankly, you can't say bad things about a librarian without sounding like kind of a jerk." [EN 5]

The significance is that the ALA has and continues to seek major influence in American schools and libraries. Seeing the opportunity, major donors like George Soros give generously to the ALA where he creates a "privacy" curriculum for K-12 public school children that the ALA then distributes, giving it legitimacy. That curriculum includes propaganda having nothing to do with privacy [EN 6] and how to get around parental Internet filters, jailbreak devices, etc. [EN 7] Following Judith Krug's lead, George Soros is using the ALA as the pretty face to obtain access to American school children and American communities. And a privacy curriculum for children has nothing to do with librarianship, the ALA's supposed mission.

Here is a succinct listing of ALA activity so people can know the ALA. When people know the ALA and its dishonest/unethical activities, they will be less susceptible to its misinformation. This list will contain new information as well as material I have already published.

ALA is Terrorist Friendly

- ALA laments a librarian turning in a 9/11 terrorist to police because his library patron privacy was violated. [EN 8]
- ALA silences terrorism critic Robert Spencer using "open espousal of censorship." [EN 9] [EN 10]
- ALA says "CAIR is a Washington-based, Islamic, civil-rights and advocacy group." [EN 11]
- ALA says CAIR "Library Project" [EN 12] propaganda [EN 13] makes for "a well-informed population." [EN 14]

- George Soros funding for the ALA to create a "privacy" curriculum for children in K-12 public schools. See, "Soros, the ALA, and Terrorists." I asked the leader of the ALA section that publicized the curriculum [EN 27] who wrote it and was told she had no idea. The curriculum, ostensibly about privacy, "espouses the Library Bill of Rights and the public library's take on privacy and challenging books," [EN 28] among other things, and urges children to break past Internet controls set in place by their parents, jailbreak devices, etc. [EN 29]
- George Soros funding for ALA leaders to train journalists: Barbara Jones, Director of the ALA Office for Intellectual Freedom, describes how the ALA got George Soros funding for acting outside the umbrella of the ALA. (Doesn't that make it a taxable gift—and this will be the first public reporting of the matter as the ALA has not yet announced this, and I hope someone investigates: this is different from the $350,000 and the $105,650 grants for the "privacy" curriculum):

Barbara Jones: "My Office just had this nifty, big, grant from the Soros Foundation to do the work with newsrooms and with media and with journalists.

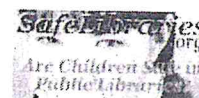

And my question to you is, we just got it, and we're just still thinking and formulating. What might we do? I mean journalists and librarians have been meeting together now for about a year, about things we have in common, and stuff like that."

Sandra Braman: "Under the content, under the umbrella of the ALA or?"

Barbara Jones: "No. The first meeting was in Boston adjacent to the national conference on media reform. And we had a meeting at MIT about, called "Beyond Books" about libraries as (?). But, I'm just trying to think I mean we have this money to do some stuff to think and do things." [EN 30]

ALA Use of Dishonest/Unethical Means to Promote Interests

- Astrourfing and Anonymous Editing on Wikipedia: "ALA Pushes Net Neutrality on Wikipedia; Political and Pecuniary Interests Promoted Anonymously by ALA Office for Intellectual Freedom May Violate Ethical and Tax Codes"; this from the open access people, and the organization for which the ALA was astrourfing is a George Soros grantee.
- Defamation: 1) "Past ALA Prez Defames [Wisconsin Governor] Scott Walker As a Murderer"; and 2) in a story I have not yet published, ALA defamed Major League Baseball player Alfonso Soriano by writing on his Wikipedia page that he had been seen "canoodling" with someone other than his wife [EN 31]; this from the patron privacy advocates who would even protect terrorists.
- Faking Top 10 Lists: "Banned Books Week is Gay Promotion? Author Admits ALA Faked 2010 Top 10 Challenged Book List," and linked here is the full length recording where the author admitted the ALA artificially promoted her work onto the list. Note that people say exaggerating LGBT discrimination actually increases discrimination and suicides [EN 32], so the ALA may be increasing LGBT discrimination and suicides by faking its top 10 lists.
- Unannounced Grants (Payoffs/Bribes?) to Locals: "Ginny v. Maria: Hijacked Library or Safe Library in West Bend, WI"
- Repeated Plagiarism: 1) "How ALA Plagiarism Becomes Truth Through the Media Lens; SafeLibraries in USA Today" and 2) "ALA Double Standard on Accuracy in Texas State Board of Education Proposal on School Book Content; ALA President Plagiarizes to Promote Matter Outside ALA Purview" and 3) "Plagiarism by ALA Executive Board Member Diane Chen"
- Whitewashing Public Library Rape: "ALA Whitewashes Rape and Blames Child; Removes Discussion of ALA's Possible Culpability for Rape" - Notably, the ALA changed the online version (that then became the printed version) in response to my criticism, thereby effectively agreeing I was right, but not without making a nasty anonymous comment that the article already said rape and I was wrong, since they just changed the article as a result of my post.
- Intentional Misquotes: "Banned Books Week Propaganda Exposed by Progressive Librarian Rory Litwin; ALA Censors Out Criticism of Its Own Actions in a Manner Dishonest to the Core"
- Labeling Everyone Who Challenges Anything As a "Censor": 1) "The Parent Trap: ALA Uses Banned Books Week to Ridicule Patrons Complying with ALA Materials Reconsideration Policies" and 2) "Banned Books Week Propaganda Exposed by Progressive Librarian Rory Litwin; ALA Censors Out Criticism of Its Own Actions in a

End Notes

1. The American Library Association [ALA] is the world's largest and oldest library association. It has benefitted many people in many ways, and still does. According to the ALA Constitution, "The object of the American Library Association shall be to promote library service and librarianship."
2. Its mission is "To provide leadership for the development, promotion, and improvement of library and information services and the profession of librarianship in order to enhance learning and ensure access to information for all." It even has a motto: "The best reading, for the largest number, at the least cost."

I could not imagine placing the future of my profession in any of the hands that were also being considered as chief legal counsel. I will go to my grave believing that we would never have gotten a 9-zero Supreme Court decision with any other lead plaintiff, and that includes ACLU. The baggage that they carry with them precludes a 9-zero Supreme Court decision. I believed that, and Bruce Ennis believed that.

What do you mean by the ACLU "baggage?"

Just because of who they are and what their reputation is and what they do. They bring a lot of baggage to court. The U.S. Supreme Court—the men and women on the Court—put on their underwear the same way you and I do. In other words, these are human beings. We're dealing with human beings.
